Macmillan Coffee Morning Thursday 28th September

Dear Parents,

On Thursday 28th September we will be holding our annual Macmillan Coffee Morning. We would like to invite Grandparents to join us for this event, to enjoy coffee and the opportunity to see their grandchildren at school.

The morning will start at 9am with Collective Worship in the school hall, from there everyone will go back to the children's classes where the teachers will have arranged small activities for Grandparents and children to enjoy together. Coffee and cake will then be available in the hall for the Grandparents at 10.00am until 10.30am.

If you are able to make or donate a few cakes for the event we would be very grateful, they can be dropped off at the office on the morning. Any remaining cakes will be sold off after school with the proceeds going to the charity.

We look forward to welcoming as many Grandparents into school as can make it.

Yours sincerely

Laura Watts
Executive Head teacher
